A day at Khao Sok – nature, activities and fun!

Elephant Hills is Thailand's first luxury jungle camp combining the camp idea of African national parks with Thai tropical forest environment in Khao Sok. The forest is filled with animals and plants, some of them can only be found in this environment. In the morning you will awake to the different noises of the jungle.

Various activities are offered at Elephant Hills. From a scenic canoe trip on the Sok River, a ride on an elephant back or jungle trekking by foot the camp is a perfect base in the jungle of Khao Sok. If you decide to join our all day Takuapa Nature safari tour you will explore Mangrove channels by speed boat and canoe, cruise onboard our classical Burmese Junk and visit one of the many interesting mangrove beaches.

Undertaking our trip to Cheow Lam Lake you will explore the lake by a traditional Longtail boat, relax at a local raft house, stop at a local market to sample the local way of life. In the evening enjoy a delicious Thai dinner at Elephant Hills, exchange stories of your daily activities and chill out at our jungle bar or the camp fire.
